Verse 1

A D A
I was just 18, when I came rolling in
A E
You opened up your doors and took me in just like a friend
A D
Didn't know where I was from, didn't even know my name
F#m
Name
A E
But you treated me like one of your daughters just the same

Verse 2

A D A
I grew up far from here, underneath the city lights
A E
I'm still not used to seeing all these stars come out at night
I finally found a place
D F#m
I feel like I can breathe
A
Its where I'm putting down my roots
E A
Cause I don't wanna leave

Chorus 1

D A
From the valley to the hills
E F#m
Driving through the Shenandoah
D A
I could spend forever
E
Just getting to know ya
D A
Sign says it's for lovers
E F#m
No more will I roam
D E A
Virginia, Virginia, I'm Home

Verse 3

I wanna get lost in the sunsets, high up on Blue Ridge
Fall in love, find a piece of land where we can raise our kids
I'm floating like a feather in the Appalachian wind
It's the closest to heaven that I've ever been

Chorus 2

From the valley to the hills
Driving through the Shenandoah
I could spend forever
Just getting to know ya
Sign says it's for lovers
No more will I roam
Virginia, Virginia, I'm Home

Instrumental (Chorus)

Bridge

F#m D
Nowhere in the world, that I'd rather be
F#m E
Every trip around the sun, you know where to find me

Chorus 3

From the valley to the hills
Driving through the Shenandoah
I could spend forever
Just getting to know ya
Sign says it's for lovers
No more will I roam
Virginia, Virginia, I'm Home
